That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we could properly investigate them, and in the investigation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvellous cures effected by the "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood purifier known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvellous in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distracting derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of genuine testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of all the most distressing and dangerous diseases of women, such as irregular menstruation, displacement of the uterus, leucorrhoea, etc., and many other ailments which often after many other conventional medicines and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the specific extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were critical and scientific, and the medicines are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for their purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

EXPERIENCE OF CASTAWAYS.

The steamer Mlowera arrived at Victoria, B. C., Sunday from Australia with details of the finding of the castaways from the wrecked barkentine Dundonald, who for eight months struggled to exist on Disappointment Island, 200 miles south of New Zealand.

The Dundonald, with a crew of 27, was smashed on the rocks off the island March 7 last, 12 men being drowned. The survivors were found at Auckland Island, which they reached in a rudely fashioned boat, eight months afterward, by the New Zealand steamer Hinecoma. They lived on raw mollyhaws and seals and built a fire and kept it going for several weeks. Canvas from the ship was used for covering. Cold weather then came, with snow and hail, and with their hands they dug holes in the ground, above which huts were built of sods and sticks. In these they took shelter. At first they cooked on the fire, but later they built a mud oven and prepared food on a spit.

They knew that a government food depot had been placed on Auckland Island, five miles away, and finally decided to build a boat. In July a craft was fashioned of crooked sticks and canvas, clothing and blankets saved from the ship also being used. A small bone saved from a bird, with a hole pierced in it, was used as a needle and some wire from the ship as thread.

The boat started July 31, but failing to find the depot, the men came back August 9.

A second boat was built in September and a third in October, but these were smashed. They then sent the first boat ahead, and the men, after walking through brush and scrub for 15 miles, found the food depot.

A good boat was there, and, making sails from their clothing, a crew went back to Disappointment Island and brought the others to Auckland Island. The Hinecoma, passing with a scientific party, saw their signals, and a month after they had reached Auckland rescued them.

"To Keep Well"

The whole year through," writes T. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Me., "I and my family used Dr. King's New Life Pills. They have proven most satisfactory to all of us." They tone the system and cure biliousness, malaria and constipation. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 25c.

THE BOYERTOWN HORROR.

With all the victims who lost their lives in the theater fire at Boyertown, Pa., last week, buried, the authorities of the borough and the coroner of Berks county will now begin an investigation of the terrible affair.

Warren Jones, who was ticket-taker at the Rhodes Theater at the time of the fire, has confirmed, in part, the story that the exit doors were bolted when the audience made its rush to escape the flames. He made his first statement Sunday night since the fire. He declares that one of the two doors, which swung both ways, was bolted, and adds: "When the people began to rush from the hall I threw open one door and tried to open the one bolted. I could not do it. People finally smashed it down."

"I believe that what caused the deaths more than anything else was the placing of collapsible wooden chairs in the two aisles and behind the reserved seats."

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills known. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

SEARCHING FOR THE GROOM.

The desertion of pretty Beulah Brill an hour after her marriage to Lowell Hefflin, against whom she had made charges, has resulted in a family feud which embraces practically all the people in Strasburg, Woodstock and Linden.

The father and brothers of the girl and their friends are aligned on one side, armed and openly clamoring for the life of the young man, whose present whereabouts are not known. The friends of Hefflin have also quietly armed, and are prepared to resist any attempt to do bodily harm to the young man, who, they declare, is more sinned against than sinning.

Miss Brill told her story to her father, William Brill, and brothers. They at once armed themselves and went in search of Hefflin, whose home is in Linden. He was found at Woodstock and forced to return to the old Brill home, where the marriage ceremony was performed. After the marriage there was a supper, at which amicable relations between young Hefflin and the Brills were re-established.

After the departure of the guests, Hefflin went upstairs. Following in every detail the plan of Bywaters in a similar case, Hefflin escaped through an open window, descending by way of a porch to the ground. He succeeded in making his escape before his absence was discovered by the Brills. Relatives of the girl made a search for him with the intention of killing him on sight.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

but he was not found. Later a warrant was sworn out for him on a charge of desertion and nonsupport.

The young man was arrested and brought before a magistrate, who bailed him for his appearance at the March term of court. Ore was taken that the Brills should not have an opportunity to harm him. The youth again disappeared and has not been seen since.

GERMANY'S NAVY.

That Germany will soon become and will continue to be the world's second naval power is the assertion of Col. Gaedke, perhaps the foremost of the Kaiser's experts in the building up to the fatherland's sea strength. The colonel conceives that England will still overshadow the rest of the world's fleet, but declares that no other nation will even approach Germany. The fleet will consist in 1920, he says, of thirty-two battleships of the Dreadnaught type, fifteen others of almost equal strength and twenty large and powerfully armed cruisers.

Kodol is the best remedy known today for dyspepsia, indigestion and all troubles arising from a disordered stomach. It is pleasant, prompt and thorough. Sold by W. F. Creighton.
